Payment Options and how We treat payments You make to us

We normally accept payment by bank transfer, cheque or the following credit/debit cards – Visa, Mastercard. You may be able to spread Your payments through insurers' instalment schemes or a credit scheme, which we have arranged with an established insurance premium finance provider. Rates and acceptance may be subject to a full credit check. We will give You full information about Your payment options and the appropriate finance agreement when we discuss Your insurance in detail. Under the terms of our agreements with the Insurance companies with whom we place business, we normally receive premiums You pay to us as Agent of the Insurer. All insurance premiums You pay to us are protected in a Statutory Trust Client Account until we pay insurers. We do not pay any interest on premiums held by us in the course of arranging and administering Your insurance.

Our Fees and Charges for providing Our Services to You

We usually receive a commission from the insurer which is taken from the amount You pay us. Where you pay on credit we may also receive commission from the premium finance provider and, in addition, we may also may make the following charges to cover the administration of Your insurance:

- Arranging new policies - £50
- Mid term adjustments - £25
- Mid term cancellations & other refunds are refunded net of commission. We may, in addition, charge a £50 administration fee
- Renewals - £50
- Replacement/duplicate certificates or cover notes - £25

If we arrange a policy on which we earn no commission we will advise You of the arrangement fee before You take the policy out. We may also make additional charges specific to the arrangement & servicing of certain policies, but these will always be advised to You in advance. Prior to the conclusion of each insurance contract, or upon renewal, We will remind You of Your right to be advised of the level of commission which We receive from underwriters. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which We may have received as a result of placing Your insurance business. Where we may receive additional remuneration based on the volume or profitability of our account with an insurer we will advise You of this.

The Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). For commercial customers with less than £1m turnover, insurance advising and arranging is covered for 90% of the claim, without an upper limit. For compulsory insurances (for example, motor insurance and employers' liability insurance), insurance advising and arranging is covered for 100% of the claim, without an upper limit. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.

Premium Finance Facilities and Service

We are a credit broker, not a lender. We may use insurance and finance providers who will conduct a full credit check and share Your payment record with other lenders, all of which will be recorded on Your credit record. Please advise us if You do NOT consent to a full credit check being undertaken and you require premium finance, however this may affect our ability to offer instalment facilities to You. In relation to the provision of credit, we offer only the facilities provided by Insurers, or those of Premium Credit Ltd from whom we may receive a commission. Where a choice of providers is available, which could include instalment facilities provided by your insurer, we will explain the reason for our selection on any credit product offered.

Please note, Your policy cover will cease if You fail to keep up payments on an instalment agreement or premium finance facility related to it and Your credit rating may be affected. In entering into a credit agreement to pay Your insurance premium, You give the finance provider the legal Right to cancel Your insurance policy on Your behalf in the event that You default on the loan, and offset any refunded premium against the outstanding amount owed to them. This means that if You default on Your payment terms and the finance provider requests that we cancel Your policy, we will do so as Your agent.

Sums Insured and Indemnity Limits (including information on Business Interruption Insurance)

You will be responsible for ensuring that all sums insured and indemnity limits are adequate for the cover requested. We will advise You of the basis of calculation for sums insured and will, on request, give You details of external experts, such as surveyors and valuers, which You may wish to consult. Most policies will include an Average Condition which means that in the event of under-insurance, Insurers may reduce the amount of any claim settlement in the same proportion as the sum insured bears to the total value of the insured items. The following information on calculating business interruption sums insured is given for guidance, but You should always seek specific advice from us if You are in any doubt as to what should be included. Several types of cover exist for Business Interruption cover, which is sometimes referred to as Loss of Profits insurance;

- Gross Profit basis (usual for manufacturers, retailers etc);
- Gross Revenue basis (normally for consultants, professions);
- Increased cost of working (ICOW) basis (for businesses that believe there would be no loss of profit or revenue in the event of a claim, but would need to cover increased trading costs until the claim is settled).

You should note that 'Accounting Gross Profit' and 'Insurance Gross Profit' are not the same thing. Where Your policy includes this cover, the Sum Insured for 'Gross Profit' should normally be calculated using the following method:

Annual turnover plus year-end stock and work in progress; less opening stock (and work in progress) and purchases, bad debts and uninsured variable expenses (such as the purchase of raw materials or shipping costs)

Gross Revenue insures the total turnover without deductions and Increased Cost of Working is based on projected additional costs of temporary relocation and other forecast additional costs. Business interruption sums insured should then be adjusted to take into account the indemnity period (for example, doubled for a 24 month indemnity period).

Claims

As part of our service, we will assist You with any claim You need to make and tell You what Your responsibilities are in relation to making claims. All incidents or circumstances which could lead to a claim must be reported as soon as practicable. Your insurer's claims contact number is shown in Your policy.

Our Service and Obligations to You

We will conduct a fact-find to evaluate Your insurance needs with the member of Your business that You choose to nominate as Your Insurance Contact, who will be responsible for ensuring that Your disclosure obligations to insurers are met. Please contact Us immediately if You wish to change the person in Your business nominated as Your Insurance Contact. We will act as Your agent in sourcing a policy to meet Your demands and needs and presenting the information provided by Your nominated Insurance Contact in a manner which is clear and accessible to insurers. Where We operate under delegated authority from insurers We will act as their agent in certain circumstances and We will always advise You where this is the case. We will advise and make a personal recommendation for You after We have assessed Your demands and needs. Our advice will be confirmed in a demands & needs and suitability statement, giving the reasons for Our recommendation. We typically offer advice from a limited panel of selected insurers, or from a single insurer and we will advise You of the identity of the insurers considered, or if we have given advice based on a fair analysis of the market. We do not accept responsibility for the solvency of any insurer recommended. We may use another, specialist, intermediary to access the insurance product that most suits Your needs and We will inform You where this is the case.

Your Responsibility to Provide Information (Duty of Fair Presentation of Risk)

You have a duty under the Insurance Act 2015 to make a fair presentation of the risk to insurers. This duty applies when You take out Your insurance cover, throughout the life of Your policy, and when You renew Your insurance. This duty includes a need for You to undertake a reasonable search for material information which is known, or ought reasonably to be known, by anyone playing a significant role in making business decisions in Your business (such as Your company's principals, directors, senior management or shareholders) and staff responsible for arranging or administering Your firm's insurance. You should advise Us of any particular concerns which led You to seek insurance cover and any special or unusual facts relating to the risk. You must ensure that all material statements of fact are substantially correct and not misleading, and any material information which is a matter of expectation or belief (for example, an estimate or forecast) is provided in good faith. Failure to disclose any material information or change in circumstances to Your insurers which could influence the cost, or their decision to accept Your insurance, could mean that Your policy could be invalidated or cancelled without refund, or that part or all of a claim may be not be paid. 'Material Information or changes in circumstances' could include Your inability to comply with any conditions or warranties applicable to Your policy, which should be notified to Us immediately.

'Material statements' and 'material information' are information which could influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in determining whether to take on a risk and on what terms.

Cancellation of this Agreement

This agreement will remain in force unless cancelled by either party in accordance with the terms below or You have no insurance business placed through Us. You may cancel the agreement at any time, subject to notification in writing to our usual office address. In the event of cancellation, We shall be entitled to retain any commissions and fees earned prior to the date of cessation of the agreement in full. We have the right to cancel this agreement subject to one month notice in writing to Your last notified address.
